

THE BRANDON MAIL.

VOL. 13. NO. 18

BRANDON MAN., THURSDAY, MAY 2, 1895

FIVE CENTS

FLEMING'S SYRUP OF TAR

AND WILD CHERRY

THE VERY BEST for cold, coughs and all bronchial
troubles.

Fleming's Drug Stores

BRANDON AND WAWANESA.

LEGAL.

DALY & COLDWELL, Bankers, Etc. So-
litors for the Imperial Bank of Canada,
Money to Loan. Office: Daily & Coldwell
Block, Lower Avenue, Brandon, Man.

H. J. KESON, D.E.S., Surveyor and Civil Engineer. Municipal work, bridge
and other engineering, etc., especially authorized to make and certify in official survey of land in Indian lands. Correspondence in Fred.
Office: City Hall, Brandon, Man.

MEDICAL.

W. S. THOMSON, M.D. and C.M., L.R.C.P.,
S. 1st, Office: Fleming Block, Brandon, Manitoba.

J. JOHN ANDERSON, M.D., C.M.,
Dental College, University of Toronto, Ontario.
Dentist. Office: 2nd Street, opposite
Kilgore's Block, Brandon, Man.

DENTAL.

S. W. MEINKE, Graduate of Philadelphia
Dental College, University of Toronto, Ontario.
Dentist. Office: 2nd Street, opposite
Kilgore's Block, Brandon, Man.

FOR SALE AND TO LET.

House and lots for sale.
Most conveniently located. Healthy. Prices
and terms of payment reasonable.
Apply—A. B. The Mart, Office.

FOR SALE: 13,000 acres of good farming
land, on the Red River, near the junction of the Red and Assiniboine rivers. The land is well watered, and is one of the best in the province.
The price is $25 per acre, and the land will be sold on very favorable terms. Apply to
H. M. PIERCE, or J. W. CURTIS,
West Bay City, Whittemore, Mich.

WHEN IN BRANDON

You Are Invited

To call and inspect My Fine Stock consisting of

English, Scotch,
Irish,
French AND Canadian

SUITS

OVERCOATINGS!

AND

TROUSERINGS!

My Spring Importations

are the prettiest and
most fashionable in the city. This is substantiated by the great number who have bought already. I carry one of the largest and best assorted stocks in the province.

Yours truly,
A. E. MITCHELL,

Brandon's Art Tailor,
(LATE OF TORONTO)

SUCCESSOR TO J. S. LAUGHTON & CO.,

Woodenland Bldg.

YOU WILL FIND
SATISFACTION

BY USING

'EMPRESS'
...TEA...

It is an absolutely Pure Indian Tea and the best that can be produced for the money.

Price 50 c. Per Pound.

Sold only in one pound packages by

W. LAWSON,

WALLACE & CO.,

W. DOWLING & CO.,

WHITELAW TRADING CO.,

PARRISH & LINDSAY,

SMITH & BURTON,

Wholesale Grocers,

BRANDON, - MAN.

Sole Agents for Manitoba and N. W. T.

The Wheel of Time.

Mr. Thos. Butchart, Rapid City, will shortly leave for Strathclair to take charge
of the station at that point.

It is proposed to start an oat meal mill
at Rapid City on the water power at Bakwell's old mill. The promoters desire to secure a bonus from the Municipality of $3,000.

Mr. Alfred Gilbert, came in from Towhatch, last week after spending the winter there. He reports the cattle came through in fine condition. He is well pleased with the price for ranching, there being good hay and water.

The first sale of butter was made by the Rapid City creamery committee this week.
The price realized was 13c., which will give the farmer about 13c. net. This is a very satisfactory price when we consider
the low price of dairy butter.

Deloraine has posters out announcing
a grand celebration on the Queen's Birthday, Friday May 24. The amusements will consist of pony racing, bicycle
racing, athletic sports, lacrosse match, etc., grand athletic procession. Admission to the grounds 25c. Excursion rates on the C.P.R.

A Month's farmer tried an experiment
the other day which cost him a few valuable hours, but he had put out some sugar
beets and not seeing any dead ones, he came to the conclusion that it was no good.
Not wishing to throw away the grain, he
fed it to his hogs, when to his surprise
and sorrow discovered the poison to be stronger than he thought for, as it killed about half of his entire lot.

The district High Court of the Canadian Order of Foresters meets at Souris
the week after next, the first session beginning 7:30 p.m., on Tuesday May 24.
On Wednesday a meeting will be held in the Sweden hall to which the general public are invited, and at which
an address of welcome will be tendered
to the visitors on behalf of the town.
There he addresses by some of the High Court officers and other prominent Foresters
and other items arranged for by a committee of the members of the local court. This meeting will be free. Remember the date, Wednesday, May 24.

A disastrous fire occurred at the farm of Mr. Arch McArthur, on 20, 2nd, a short time the stable containing his horses,
resulting in the loss of his stables and out-buildings. The fire is supposed to have been caused by sparks from the chimney
before being discovered that all efforts
to extinguish the same were futile, and in
short time the stables containing his horses,
granary, cow stable pig pen, all the hay
and grain, harness, etc., were destroyed.
The loss amounts up to about $10,000,
there being no insurance. Owing to the unfortunate circumstances in which Mr.
McArthur is placed, some of his neighbors
have volunteered themselves, and a subscription was started forthwith, and Messrs. Hill and Spring visited the town and country districts and succeeded in collecting contributions to the amount of about two hundred dollars. The generosity of the people in this respect is to be commended.

Diplomas Granted.

The regular monthly meeting of the advisory board was held yesterday afternoon, all the members being present, viz:
The Archbishop of Rupert's Land, chairman; Rev. Dr. Bryce, Mr. G. D. Wilson,
Prof. R. R. Cochrane, Mr. J. D. Hunt,
Dr. Montgomery and Mr. D. McIntyre.

Principal W. A. McIntyre, of the Normal school, was present and he presented
a report of the local normal session examinations, in accordance with which the following were awarded Normal school
diplomas: Misses Victoria Albert, Clara
Denning, Lizzie Cooper, Jane Curt, Rose
Egan, Maggie Erwin, Maude Haliday
Grant, Beatrice Gunas, Margaret McIn-
nes, Ethel H. McInnes, Clara Lee,
Mina, Eva McKay, Bella McIndrie,
Marion McKay, Sarah Jessie McLennan,
Annie McQuade, Grace Williams R. J. J.
Teresa T. Clarry, Grace Scott, Beatrice
O. Suttie, Messrs. Herbert W. Hasbald,
John Peter Longhill, John H. Living-
ton, Neil John McLean, Percy H. Miller,
Henry L. G. Roy, Herbert H. Springfield,
Theophilus J. White, Charles H. W.
Went, William H. Willson, Charles A.
Wright.

The board took into consideration the regulations re teachers' certificates, for 1896. The only changes made were in literature as follows:

The first class course was made to conform to that prescribed by the university
council for the previous examination,
and the second class to that of the work
prescribed for the preliminary examination.

For the first class candidates were presented Ivanhoe, and Ralph's Selections
from Tennyson as follows: First, "Recollections of Arabian nights," two; "The Miller's Daughter," three; "The Lotus
Eaters," four; "Ulysses," five; "Morte D'Arthur," six; "Sir Galahad," seven;
"The Brook," eight; "On the Death of the Duke of Wellington."

Arms for Ecuador.

Washington, April 15.—The consul of the republic of Ecuador at San Francisco, California, adopting the error which has been revealed, that shipments of arms
to the United States to countries where they are prohibited, notified Secretary Gar-ret that two vessels were about to leave
San Francisco with consignments of arms

supposed to be destined for rebels in Ecuador. He asked that the United States interpose to prevent these shipments. Secretary Sherman referred the matter to Attorney General Olney, who gave an opinion that there was nothing illegal in the acts complained of. The United States authorities accordingly declined to interfere and the vessels, it is reported, have since sailed for their destination.

Hamlets.

(FROM THE HENTLEY.)

Mr. A. Kelly, of Messrs. Alexander,
Kelly & Co., Brandon, was in town last week, with a view of opening up a trade
in flour manufactured by the new mill.

A Remarkably Good Shot.—Mr. W. H.
Stewart of Arrowton while out shooting
last Saturday evening succeeded in creeping up behind some willow bushes surrounding a pond, on which there was a large flock of geese. He fired only one shot and got eight geese.

Mr. T. Pangman had about a hundred bushels of oats stolen some time last week.
They were taken from a granary on Sec.
6-15-23. As is often the case, the thieves
have left evidence that will, no doubt, lead
to their conviction. The guilty parties might as well own up at once and have
the matter settled quietly.

Mr. John Robertson, of Lapech, met with an accident which might have proved very serious. While engaged in blasting a large stone, after drilling and having
put about ten inches of powder in the hole
and was in the act of tamping, for some reason, the charge went off, his hand being considerably cut up and his face badly
burned with the powder, as well as receiving a severe shock. He is, however,
able to be out again, and feels very thankful that it was no worse.

Last Thursday morning three men driving a team of ponies and buckboard passed through town, stopping here for an hour. Calling at the hotel and watching for their opportunity when the proprietor
was out, they entered a $10 Confederate bill
in payment of a fifty cent account to John McPhail who was in the bar room at the time and not being posted on the bogus
money the boy handed back the $10.50
change of good money. Shortly afterward when Mr. Buid came in he discovered the bad bill and on making enquiries found out the parties had gone west towards Rehoboth when he accompanied by con-table Kirk started in pursuit. After driving about 20 miles they overtook the men. Of course the party who passed the Confederate bill was quite innocent and didn't know the money was bogus having taken it from some other party in good faith. He was quite willing, however, to return the money and pay all expenses.
The trio then started on their way rejoicing, no doubt hoping to succeed better next time. Look out for Confederate bill.

Farr in Victoria.

William Farr, the dramatic culmination of whose double life has horrified
and amazed Winnipeg recently, has not been apprehended, and it is believed
he is now in or near San Francisco.
No word of his whereabouts since his escape from custody was obtained until yesterday—and then it was found in this city.

Leaving the Manitoba capital on Monday evening, it is evident the fugitive came direct to the coast, very possibly having the assistance of railway men of his acquaintance, for a lady resident of Toronto street, this city, a former resident of Winnipeg, states positively that she saw him here on Wednesday or Thursday evening. She was at the time totally ignorant of the crime laid at his door and
consequently did not speak of the occurrence until yesterday.

Farr was when she saw him, standing
in front of the post office engaged in conversation with a man whom she did not know. He was dressed in dark clothes and wore a natty black felt hat of the Carnegie stamp. So earnestly engaged in conversation was he that she did not get
an opportunity to speak as she otherwise might have done. The fugitive engineer being an old Winnipeg acquaintance. It is quite possible, and indeed that is the probability that Farr caught the San Francisco steamer and is now beyond the jurisdiction of British courts.—Victoria,
B.C. Colonist on Sunday.

Indians up in Arms.

Killarney, Man., April 27. Reports
come in from St. John's, N. D., that fifteen hundred Indians and halfbreeds
are on the war path, and that seven hundred women and children are in tents on the prairie. Troops from Fort Totten, N. D., are ordered to St. John's. A man named Ross, living near the boundary
on the Canadian side, was chased by the Indians, and had to run for his life.

The Reds, N. D., has received yesterday news of the probable cause of the trouble, as stated by our Killarney correspondent, in an item in that paper reads: "Last Thursday Deputy Marshal Fred Schindler
went up to St. John to serve some warrants on persons indicted for cutting timber on government land. One of the men
was a halfbreed, and a mob of halfbreeds
took him away from the deputy marshal.
There was a considerable excitement about this. The threat of violence had never been made. The wood-cutting question ought to be settled along with several other things. The exact rights of the halfbreeds have never been fully determined, and the United States government

now that the matter is up for adjudication, should put a stop to this uncertainty.
During the past winter two men who filed homesteads in the mountains in good faith had their shacks burned to the ground by halfbreeds who claimed the land. Several of these people have lived on claims for years without filing on them. An early settlement of disputes
of this character would benefit all classes
here."

Town of Hartney Visited By Fire.

Hartney, Man., April 26.—About 12
o'clock last night a fire started behind Barter's butcher shop, and owing to the strong east wind and the dry nature of the surrounding buildings, spread so rapidly that Mr. Barter had just time to arouse his family, who barely escaped with their lives, some of his children running out
to the cold night air with night clothes
on.

The inmates of the Commercial hotel
also barely escaped, losing nearly all their clothing, etc., in doing so. From here the wind carried large live embers to a car of wood on the railway siding and in a few minutes more the car and contents were one blazing mass in spite of many eager hands trying to prevent it.
From the hotel the fire worked northeast
destroying in its course Kegg's butcher
shop, Sutherland's bakery, McDonald's livery. It crossed over a stone fire wall
but it was confined to the next shop, Bowers, the saddler, whose stone walls gave
the fighting party a chance against the fire.

From Barter's it worked south to the corner of the street, laying low the Massey-Harris warehouse. Cuthbert's gra-cery, Bissett's hardware, Patten's tailor shop and the O'Brien house, where it spent itself.

During the progress of the fire the railway station caught fire several times, but was always subdued. The following is a list of the losses and their assurance.

O'Brien $1,000, company unknown,
loss $2,000; Batty, no insurance, loss $400;
Cuthbert, $700 in the Western, loss $1, 100; Bissett Hardware, $1,500 in the British American, loss $2,000; Massey Harris,
insurance unknown, loss $5,000; Barter,
$1,000 in the British American, loss $4,
000; Gilbrath, Commercial hotel, $1,250
in the British American, $1,250 in Queen's, $1,000 in the Phoenix of London
and $600 in the British American, loss
$1,000; McDonald, no insurance, loss $2,
000; Young, no insurance, loss $3,000;
Bradley, $700 in the Queen's, loss $500;
Bowers, $1,100 in the National of Ireland, loss $1,200; Woodhill, $800 in the Western, $800 in the British American,
$800 in the Phoenix, of London, loss
$400.

It Was Terrible.

Paris, April 29.—Reports of the devastation caused by the bursting of the reservoir at Bouzy on Saturday have been received from Epinal hourly. The loss of life is far beyond the first estimates.
About 150 deaths are now known to have been caused by the flood, and the list may grow, as in the confusion and ruin it has been impossible to account for scores of persons who are missing. The search for dead bodies is still in progress. Thirty or more of the dead were buried yesterday.

The villages and peasant farms in the path of the flood are strewn with the wrecks of buildings, and are covered with heavy layers of mud. More than 200
families are homeless and destitute. M.
Leygues, minister of interior, has gone
with a staff of officials to the afflicted district to distribute money among the needy. Most of the towns near Epinal
have sent food and clothing for the distressed sufferers. A large part of the valley is a little more than a mass of timber and uprooted trees protruding from the mud. The soldiers who are looking for bodies make only slow progress, as
the work of digging in the debris is necessarily slow.

Much damage was done to the village
at some distance from the dam. As the flood swept down the valley it gathered
an immense quantity of timber and tree
trunks, which were thrown against the buildings in the lower neighborhoods.
For the same reason the number of deaths
in the lower villages was disproportionately great, and more bodies were found flooded than at points nearer the dam. The bank of a Bonyr river was forced down
on the bank of the Moselle, 11 miles distant.
The rush of water through the village
was so sudden that there was hardly chance to escape, and many persons were drowned in their beds. The break occurred at 5 o'clock in the morning. Not withstanding the fact that many lives
were lost from the dam, many of the results of that place had not time to reach
the lower portion of their dwelling.
The fire torrent was upon them. The damage caused by the flood is estimated at ten millions of dollars.

Fifty thousand persons visited yesterday the scenes of isolation in the Arve Valley. The little Arve river, which ordinarily is but seven feet wide, has been converted into a lake, and has been covered from the banks by the water. Soldiers and working men from the department of the Alps are busy
cutting and sheepsheadly as possible
prevent disease. Hundreds of persons were put under ground to sleep.

The masonry on the Bouzy dam, which began in 1879, and finished in 1884, it was strengthened in 1889. The dam was 150 yards long, 16 feet high, and the same thickness at the base. It was built against vertical rock and on sandstone.

By Price's Cream Baking Powder
World's Fair Largest Sale

Lost His Wife And Child.

Mr. S. Mercer, a young man who has been engaged in farming near Souris has lost his wife and child, and has left for his home in Toronto, a sadder but wiser man. Three years ago Mr. Mercer came to Manitoba with his young bride, and engaged in farm work. This spring he started for Winnipeg in the hope of acquiring employment near the city. He became ill shortly after arriving here and was treated at the general hospital. Mrs.
Mercer promised to join her husband and
to come via the Glenora branch to Winnipeg, but instead came in via Brandon, claiming she had found it necessary
to go that way. Her husband was suspicious, and since that time he has found that his wife has been unfaithful
and that her trip to Brandon was premeditated and for the purpose of meeting
another man. Mercer called at the Free Press office before departing east, and told a long story of his wife's neglect and desertion. He discovered that she had been in secret correspondence with a man
and had met on several occasions, and had met at the Brandon hotel under an assumed name. She left him in Winnipeg on March 27th for Brandon
where she remained several days and then continued her journey to Souris where she remained with her brother in law, G.
Mercer. She left there for a neighbor's and from there drove to Griswold, where she said she expected some money, and since that time it is understood, has been stopping at various towns in the west.

A serious charge made against Mrs.
Mercer is the neglect and abuse of her children. Mr. Mercer makes no charge,
and it was substantiated yesterday by a reputable Winnipegger to a Free Press reporter. This gentleman says the death of their infant boy, aged nine months, at the general hospital in this city, not more than ten days ago, was partially due to the neglect of the mother. The poor child, it is charged, was allowed to remain in the cradle for hours without nourishment, and from reclining had become deformed, the head being flattened
and the body misshapen. An effort was made to have action in the courts but owing to the expense, this was abandoned, and Mr. Mercer, the deserted husband and bereaved father, has returned east to reside at his old home. He says
he will not be responsible for any debts
contracted by his wife as she has by her
actions forfeited all claims upon him.—
Free Press.

Archbishop on Schools.

The pastoral letter of Archbishop Langevin, part of which was read in St.
Mary's church last Sunday, contains the following reference to schools:

"Then there is the precious treasure of
our religious life, especially our school
rights so unfortunately trampled under foot.

As free men, above all Christians, we should maintain the inalienable right
which the natural law confers on fathers
of families for the education of their children. In the name of the sacred rights protected by the most solemn treaties as well as royal promises and recognized by the highest tribunal of the British Empire, even more by His Majesty himself in council, for the sake
of justice and equity and for the honor of the British flag, and the noble province of Manitoba, we will not cease to claim our Catholic schools.

This trust committed to our care is the
conversion of thousands of pagan savages,
who live in the disease and ruin of an ecclesiastical province, and for whom the moment of grace seems to have dawned. We need to hear their pleading: "Father, teach us to pray." "Send us men of prayer." "Send us men of prayer." "Send us men of prayer." "Send us men of prayer."
This sacred trust is the fundamental
and all important work of colonization of a country which must be peopled in order
to become strong and prosperous.

Finally, this trust includes all educational and charitable institutions as well as other works implanted in this land by the noble and noble predecessors they have left us. We are called to remain the faithful mission of keeping, defending,
developing or completing their works
according to the measure of our strength.
But dearly beloved brethren, how are we to undertake such tasks? Of ourselves we are knowledgeless and weak.
We have to say with St. Paul: "I am all things in Him, who strengthens me." (Philippi, c. IV, v. 13). We also know that God sent us to you, so we may say, "He who sends us with you,
and he will not leave us alone." (Joel, c.
III, v. 19.)

All our confidence lies in the Sacred trust of Jesus source of all grace, of all
light, and of all strength, the matter of all
early nations and the physician of all souls.

Awarded
Highest Honor—World's Fair

DR.
PRICE'S CREAM
BAKING POWDER

MOST PERFECT MADE.

A pure Grape Cream of Tartar Powder, Finest

THE BRANDON MAIL.

Thursday, May 2, 1895.

NOTES OF THE DOMINION.

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST PICKED UP HERE AND THERE.

Collected From the Writings of the Dominion and Condensed for the Information of the Reading Public.

Robert McEachern, of Charlottetown, P. E. I., suicided.

Newfoundland delegates have received no offer from Canada.

It is stated on good authority that Gov. Schulte will dismiss the Manitoba ministry.

The factory of W. C. McDonald, the "chocolate king," at Montreal, was destroyed by fire.

There is said to be a split in Dominion government circles over the Saskatchewan branch railway.

The protest against the election of Dr. Dewar as mayor of Windsor was dismissed by Judge Horne.

The receipts from the recent Canadian horse show, held in at Toronto, exceeds the expenses by $4,990.

Geo. W. Wiggins, township clerk of Hawdon, Ont., died a few days ago at Cardinal, Ont., after a long illness.

A. F. Gault, the cotton millionaire of Montreal has donated $1,000 for the erection of a Church of England college in that city.

Charles O'Neil, of Thurlow, Ont., died the other day, aged 82. He was the fifth member of the family to die from consumption.

The Hon. Timothy W. Anglin, of Toronto, has been appointed clerk of the surrogate court in succession to the late Sir James L. Robinson, Bart.

James Mansell, aged twenty-one, of London, Ont., was killed by a Grand Trunk train near Windsor the other day. He was riding a horse when the fatality happened.

The body of Robert Claxton, a machinist of Toronto, who disappeared from his home a couple of weeks ago was found in the bay a few days ago. It is supposed to be a case of suicide, in consequence of ill health.

It is understood that Sir Oliver Mowat will shortly leave on a trip to England and the continent for the benefit of his health. His trip will extend over some months and he will be accompanied by some members of his family.

Colbert McEachern, aged 21 years, of Afton, B. C., suicided recently by cutting his throat with a razor. He committed the deed upstairs in his home, where he deliberately went for the purpose. He lived four or five hours after.

Robert F. Meredith and James L. O'Brien were arrested at Montreal recently, charged with having converted to their own use 10,000 shares of Bank of Commerce stock, which had been left in trust with them by a widow named Mrs. Morris. Bail was accepted in $10,000 each.

A car containing horses, wagons, plows, seeds and tools, left Toronto recently for the new experimental farm in West Algoma in charge of Charles Ogg, of Hamilton, who will manage the farm. Building operations will be commenced at once, and crops of wheat, barley and oats will be sown.

William Farley of Toronto, watchman for Robert Simpson, accused of having incited in the recent burning of latter's big dry goods store was discharged recently by the police magistrate. The case against the three other men under arrest in connection with the fire is believed to be weak.

W. H. Theodore Durant, in custody at San Francisco on a charge of murdering Miss Williams and Miss Lamont, whose case is attracting world-wide attention, turns out to be a Toronto boy. Durant was born in that city about twenty-four years ago, and is said to have worked there as a drug store attendant for a short time. The family then went west and took up their residence in San Francisco.

Investigation into the alleged misconduct of the Vancouver police commenced recently. Chief McLaren was in the rack the other afternoon. He denied the imputation that he wrongly accepted bribes from the British navy to look after sailors and marines and denied that the officers forced fast women to be their witnesses under penalty of being raided. The investigation promises to last several weeks.

AND THE RAIN CAME.

Great Was the Fall Thereof at Fort Worth, Texas.

A portion of the roof of the tabernacle of Fort Worth, Texas, where evangelist Moody was addressing 10,000 people the other night gave way and many of the congregation were injured, one at least seriously. Texas has needed rain for some time, so Evangelist Moody called upon his audience of 8,000 Christians in the afternoon to pray fervently that the flood gates might be opened. That night when the tabernacle was crowded with 10,000 from Fort Worth and surrounding cities, Mr. Moody announced that word had come from the Lord that the rain had fallen. A few minutes later the storm burst upon Fort Worth and torrents of rain fell. Then Mr. Moody gave thanks to God and called upon the congregation to join in singing "Coronation" and "All Hail the Power of Jesus' name." The song had sung forth from 10,000 throats, and then a cracking noise was heard, and then the roof sank and the rafters gave way, and the heavy timbers and boards, covered with tar and gravel, came down on a portion of the congregation. There was a panic. Scores upon scores of women fainted; some men fell their heads and piled pell mell over those near them. Mr. Moody grasped the situation. Walking to the middle of the platform he lifted both hands to heaven, moving his arms slowly to and fro. His attitude and coolness stopped the panic and men began to work to rescue those in danger. The wounded were soon taken out and carried to their homes or to the houses near by.

THEFT OF A LARGE SUM.

$22,765 Taken From the First National Bank of Plainfield, N. J.

The directors of the First National bank of Plainfield, N. J., recently announced the theft of $22,765, of which the vaults were robbed. Frank S. Rynow, cashier of the bank, first discovered the loss when closing the vaults the other night. Two packages, one containing $20,000 in new bills of various values from one to one thousand dollars, and another of $1,765 in mutilated bills were missing.

President Charles Potter was notified and the employees of the bank were at once subjected to a severe examination, and the story of the robbery, as given by them, betrays the work of experienced and daring cracksmen, fully equipped with thorough knowledge of their surroundings. On the day of the robbery, as usual, but two clerks remained at their posts in the bank during the noon lunch hour. David N. Rynow, a relative of the cashier, latter had at the teller's window, and Albert Vail, a young clerk, was at one of the windows. A strange man with a long list of notes on a large sheet of paper, entered and engaged Vail in conversation about the notes. Vail recalls that the paper was held in such a manner as to completely shut off his view of the passage by his window, and it is thought that the bank thief passed under cover of the paper into the inner rooms and then obtained access to the vault, or else that he entered by a rear hall and door which is known to have been left open. The bank employees remember now that during the last two weeks a number of well dressed strangers have made frequent visits to the bank and made many plausible enquiries, which it is believed, were calculated to familiarize them with the workings of the institution, and one of these men drove up to the bank and called out Frederick Haines, a clerk, more than twenty minutes before the robbery is supposed to have been made. The man who talked to Vail has never been seen in the bank before, but it is thought that the thief obtained access to the vaults under the protection of the man, he must have been thoroughly familiar with the director's room and the vault, and have known that the door to the director's room is left open. The robbery was kept a close secret at first, and private detectives engaged in the case. "Snatch" Frank Exner, however, ever had a conference with the directors, and advised immediate publication of the loss, and notification to the police authorities. Superintendent Barnes was contacted and New York Central office detectives were put in charge of the matter.

The First National Bank has been in existence for many years, and its board of directors is composed of some of the most prominent men in Plainfield. A large number of the leading business men of the town are among its depositors. The capital is $2,000,000, and there is a surplus of $500,000. Albert Vail, the clerk, has been in the employ of the bank for twenty years. He is a married man and is fully conversant with the workings of the bank. Frank S. Rynow, the cashier, has been in the service of the bank for nearly twenty-five years and is one of the best known substantial business men of the city. President Charles Potter is the president of the large Potter Printing Press works.

HORRIBLE HOMICIDE.

A Destitute Invalid Slaughtered With an Axe—A Mystery to Be Solved.

Louis Pomeroy, a French Canadian, thirty years old, was hanged to death by an axe, a few days ago in the city of Vancouver. Pomeroy was known to the whole city through his misfortunes. A few months ago he was nearly killed to death by a crazy drunk. Doctors saved him, but he was again stricken with heart disease. Destitute and in work, disheartened, he applied for a pass to the city council that he might go to his home in Quebec, where he could be cared for until he died, and he buried his hope. He went to live in a shack on False Creek, Vancouver, with a man named Andrews. His friends wrote to his parents, "Louis is grievously sick, send $75 that he may go home." Louis' parents were very poor, but the money was sent. They raised $75 and sent it to their son. Immediately afterwards the young French-Canadian disappeared, but not until a week had elapsed did his shack companion notify the police. The police told him to find where Pomeroy had gone. Next morning Andrews reported that he found the horribly mutilated remains of the missing man only twenty feet from the shack. The sight was a ghastly one; the body and head had been brutally hacked by a savage homicide, lying beside the remains. The horribly disfigured corpse had been raised on a stone and an attempt made to burn the body by kindling a fire around it. Rain had evidently put the fire out and the attempt of the murderer had been frustrated by the hand of providence. One man who lived near Pomeroy disappeared from Vancouver a week ago. It will be interesting, however, to hear the evidence of Andrews at the coroner's inquest. The case involving directly at the scene of the murder could be ignorant of the crime for a week must be explained to the satisfaction of the coroner.

China's Flag.

The flag of China is one of the gayest among ensigns. The body is a pale yellow, on the upper left-hand corner is a small red sun. Looking intently at the sun is a fierce Chinese dragon. The dragon's belly is a brilliant red and white. His back is green. He is standing on his two hind paws and his left forefoot. His feet are five-toed and slightly hooked. His long five-forked tail stretches away in the rear. The dragon's neck is arched back. His mouth is wide open, and he looks as he were about to try to swallow the red sun. The Japanese flag has a white body and in the centre is a large red sun, with rays radiating in all directions. About 1,000 years ago the Chinese made war on Japan and prepared a grand invasion. To symbolize their intended victory they depicted the flag of today. They took the sun of Japan and made it small, and put it in front of the dragon's mouth to express the idea that the Chinese dragon would devour the Japanese. It happened, however, that the Chinese fleet, carrying an army of 100,000 men, was wrecked on a rocky island in Japan by a great storm, and all but 3,000 perished. The specter that ugly beginning in the use of the flag, and recent events seem to indicate that it is still a hoodoo.

The Rubeau mine at New Denver, P. C., has been closed down for some months.

TWENTY YEAR'S SIEGE.

THE STORY OF A WELL-KNOWN GREENVILLE COUNTY MAN.

Rheumatism Held the Fort for Twenty Years, Resisting All Treatment and Efforts to Dislodge It—The Patient Thoroughly Discouraged, but Acting on the Advice of Friends, Made one More Effort Which Was Crowned With Success.

From the Brockville Times.

There are very few of the older residents of this section to whom the name of Whitmarsh is not familiar. E. H. Whitmarsh, of Merrickville, was for thirty years a member of the council of the United Counties of Leeds and Grenville, and on four occasions filled the office of warden of the counties. His son, Mr. George H. Whitmarsh, to whom this article refers, is also well-known throughout the province, and is the Merrickville correspondent of The Times. It is well known to Mr. Whitmarsh's friends that he has been a sufferer for many years from rheumatism, from the random of which he has not fortunately been released. Mr. Whitmarsh tells how this was brought about as follows: "For over twenty years previous to the winter of 1894 I was almost a continual sufferer from muscular rheumatism, sometimes wholly incapacitated from doing any kind of work. After trying remedies of all kinds and descriptions without any benefit, I at last came to the conclusion that a cure was impossible. In the fall of 1893 I was suffering untold pain and misery and could not rest day or night. Several of my friends strongly urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and, reluctantly, I confessed, for I had lost faith in all medicine, I began to do so. To my surprise and great satisfaction, I soon began to experience relief, and this feeling grew to one of positive assurance that the malady that has made life miserable for so many years was leaving me as I continued the treatment. By the time I had used nine boxes of Pink Pills not a twinge of the rheumatism remained, but to make assurance doubly sure I continued the treatment until I had used twelve boxes of the pills. This was in January, 1894, since when I have not had the slightest trace of any rheumatic pain. I am satisfied beyond a doubt that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cured me, and I can confidently recommend them to all rheumatic sufferers."

Rheumatism, sciatica, neuralgia, partial paralysis, locomotor ataxia, nervous headache, nervous prostration and diseases depending upon humors in the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc., all disappear before a fair treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They give a healthy glow to pale and sallow complexions and build up and renew the entire system. Sold by all dealers and most paid at $3 a box or six boxes for $20 by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont. Do not be persuaded to take a cheap substitute.

CONDUCTOR SNIDER.

A Remarkable Railroad Man to Visit Manitoba and the Northwest.

Reference has been made to Conductor Snider, who is to visit Manitoba and the Northwest Territories in May, that he is an evangelist; this is pointed out in the following extract from a letter which he has written to the Grand Trunk railway, running between Toronto and Stratford. He is, however, an evangelist in this sense, that he preaches nearly every Sunday somewhere; and he has occupied some of the leading pulpits of Ontario. As a lecturer, he is said to be a great success and in great demand in that province.

During the month of May he intends taking a trip to the Pacific Coast, preaching and lecturing along the line of the C. P. R. He will spend three or four days in Winnipeg, preaching on Sunday morning, May 5th, in Zion church, and that evening in Grace church, a railroad sermon. On the following Monday evening he will preach in Grace church, on the Tuesday evening in Zion church. His other engagements are Carleton Place, May 10th; Portage la Prairie, May 12th and 13th; Brandon, May 15th and 16th. In the Northwest Territories he will visit Moosehide, May 21st; Medicine Hat, May 23rd; Calgary, May 25th; and Banff, May 26th. In British Columbia the programme includes Donald, May 28th; Kamloops, May 31st; Vancouver, June 2nd and 3rd; New Westminster, June 4th; Nanaimo, June 5th and 7th; Victoria, June 10th, 11th and 12th. On the way to Winnipeg he will speak on April 25th and 26th at North Bay; May 1st at Port Arthur; May 2nd at Fort William; and May 3rd at Fort Portage. His lectures on "The Rail, and the People we Meet," is characterized as a very interesting entertainment. A favorable comment is given in these words: "Conductor Snider is one of the best delineators of character in Canada. His impersonations of old people are inimitable. He makes the most enjoyable, laughable and instructive."

ONE MILLION CAPITAL.

A New Lumber Company to Operate on Lake of the Woods Limits.

A lumber company for the purpose of manufacturing American logs at some point on the lake of the Woods is being organized at Duluth with a capital of $1,000,000. The organizers are William Deary, of the Deary & Deary, Duluth; George A. Baird, of Ottawa; Timothy Crawell, Boston; H. Howard, Montreal; and M. A. Ferguson, Duluth, and they expect to have everything in shape to commence business Aug. 1. There are at present only two lumber companies doing business at the Lake of the Woods, and as they own extensive timber limits on the Canadian side they have quit buying logs in Minnesota and a move in this direction has been found necessary. Edward Buckley, president of the Manitoba & Northwestern railway, and other Michigan parties are interested and will aid materially towards making the new enterprise a success.

The Jury Disagreed.

The Grand Trunk railway conspiracy case, on trial in Montreal in which Conductors Mulligan, DeFeau and Tamblin were accused of "knocking down" fares, ended in a disagreement of the jury. Eleven were for acquittal, but one man held out for conviction. The case will have to be retried at the June term of the court of Queen's bench.

25 Royal Crown Soap Wrappers

The Royal Crown Soap Co., WINNIPEG, MANITOBA

Give us FREE by mail your CHOICE of the following Books and Pictures:

- MODERN HOME COOK BOOK, -
- LADIES' FANCY WORK BOOK, -
- Large List of Standard NOVELS, -
- SIX Beautiful New PICTURES. -

LIST OF BOOKS AND PICTURES MAILED FREE ON APPLICATION.

NONE BUT ROYAL CROWN SOAP WRAPPERS RECEIVED.

GRANBY RUBBERS

BETTER THIS SEASON THAN EVER.

Everybody wants them. Everybody sells them. They wear like iron

TORTURE UNTOLD

WAS SUFFERED.

A Well Known Gentleman in the District of Algoma Writes About His Sufferings.

GENTLEMEN—About three months ago I was all used up with Rheumatism, suffering more than torture from it frequently. I took three bottles of your valuable medicine, Burdock Blood Bitters, and now feel all O. K. and in good health. I took a few bottles of B. B. B. and found it the best medicine I had ever used. I had the best of health until this attack of Rheumatism, and now I am glad to say that B. B. B. has made me as sound as a dollar.

A. McOWEN, Kenabutch P. O., Ont.

Called Them Traitors.

Every member of the Irish parliament of London, Eng. has received a copy of a recent issue of the Irish Bulletin, published in New York, and containing a marked paragraph denouncing Timothy M. Healy and the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Traitors' to the cause of Ireland." The publication has caused great indignation among the members of the Irish party in the house of commons, and one of the number, James O'Connor, in a letter denouncing the Irish party, who republished the paragraph, winds up with this characteristic Irish intonation: "I do not propose to discuss in the newspapers the application of the word 'Traitor' to Mr. Healy or to any of those Irish members of parliament who are known as 'Tra

LOCAL NEWS.

Glenboro is to have a chartered bank. Plum Creek is going to celebrate the 24th.

The assessor gave Brandon a population of 4,300 this spring.

Rold, I. Crisp, of the Creek, has been granted a Justice of the Peace.

Dr. Young, of the Souris, has gone to the Old Country to take up some special training.

Mr. Jukes, of the Imperial Bank, has gone on a tour of inspection of outside branches.

Geo. Thomas, this city, has been appointed a boiler inspector by the local government.

Conductor Snider, the converted rail-road man, is to visit Brandon on the 19th and 20th of May.

The Rev. Mr. Baker, of Winnipeg, preached two excellent sermons in St. Matthew's on Sunday.

Mr. J.C. Todd was the first C. P. R. official to sell coupon tickets in this city. This was in 1881.

Mrs. Thierion has opened a dress making and millinery business one door west of Miss Scott's establishment.

A. D. Garrett will leave for Hamilton in about a month to take charge of a business he recently secured in that city.

The Rev. Mr. Sykes, Episcopal minister of St. George's, goes to Oak Lake, and Rev. Mr. Chalmers, of Glenboro, goes to McGregor.

Greenway threatens to make war on "noxious weeds" this summer. In that case it is likely some of his last election clerks will catch it.

A Winnipeg clergyman was very much horrified on visiting his church the other night to find his choir had turned his sacred edifice into a bill room.

Sid. Dillingham pleaded guilty last week before the P. M. of assaulting Ed. Holland. He got the worst of the assault and paid $2 and costs besides.

The British government has taken possession of the Nicaraguan customs houses, until the government of that country pays up for a claim acknowledged.

The Morton brothers, 12 miles north of Deloraine, had a very narrow escape from being burned alive while liberating their horses from a stable that had caught fire.

Dr. Torrance had a narrow escape from serious consequences from blood poisoning. He was attacked, but took timely precaution, and his hand is now nearly as well as ever.

Geo. Lamb has opened a shop for the repairing of bicycles, in that well building on 10th st. opposite the Brunswick hotel. Mr. Lamb is a good mechanic and will fix up all sprained steel wheels as good as new.

P. D. Barragar has his hand in a sling. He undertook to wash a window with strong lye. He thinks he has been lied to about the power of the liquid, as the nails are now coming off the fingers of one hand.

R. J. Rowe and John Irving went to Oak Lake for a short time the other day and among other larks brought home two pelicans measuring over eight and a half feet from tip to tip. Sam Rowe says the pelicans came from Halimand.

Mr. J. W. Sifton has given up well looking and is now inspecting lunatic asylums. What Mr. Sifton is not capable of doing, when he has no official duties in particular, is rather scarce. Supposing, for instance, they added the duties of grubber and cockroach inspection to his already multifarious duties.

At a recent meeting of the Brandon curling club the secretary presented an elaborate report of the year's successful curling among Wheat City men. Objection was made to the action of the branch executive in changing the Brandon district so as to include Carberry and Portage la Prairie, and the recommendation was made that the club representatives should use their influence at the branch council meeting to have the club placed as before with Virden, Moosomin and Elkhorn.

J. D. McGregor, of the firm of Munro, McGregor & Co., Brandon, left a few days ago for California to bring down two carloads of standard-bred fillies from Dal Paso ranch. In the western states this is a very celebrated breed establishment for this kind of stock, and last year turning out amongst others the now famous "Flying Jib." A good deal of interest has been aroused among the city horse men by the news of a expected importations and much curiosity has been betrayed concerning the brand. — Free Press.

The way some people who are otherwise acknowledged to be well educated by letters is well illustrated by the postage given by some of the business people of this city and surrounding towns the other day, to a travelling adventurer, named Taylor, for a base wood publication titled "The Western Manitoba Souvenir," a historical sketch, etc. The thing sets out by saying Brandon has a population of 8,000 people, and it continues to the close with information just as accurate, and for this, his patrons are said to have paid the fair about $500.

The Brandon Lawn Tennis club organized for the year last Thursday evening with the following officers:—Patron, W. A. Macdonald; president, Judge Cumberland; vice-president, Geo. Coleman; secretary, F. J. Dixon; committee, Irwin, Gledhill, J. A. Macdonald, and Robinson. Saturday afternoon throughout the season it is intended to have a race on the grounds, and a committee of ladies to arrange this part of the work of the club is to consist of Mesdames Cumberland, Chas. Kelly, Robinson, Longworth, Rolan, Hearn, W. A. Macdonald, Dr. Macdonald, J. M. Fleming, Patrick, and Kavanagh. The outlook for the club this season is the best for some time, and it is hoped that play will be improved. A committee has been appointed to look for new grounds for the club.

Lake navigation will open this week. County Court opens here on the 7th inst.

The Portage is going to have a new $10,000 Baptist church.

The Orangemen are to have an immense turn out in Winnipeg on July 12th.

Beginning on Saturday the law offices will close each Saturday for three months at noon.

Fourteen people were killed in an accident on a Mexican railway, on Saturday last.

A. W. Merritt & Co. will shortly put in a new stock of furniture in place of that recently destroyed by fire.

It is not unlikely that Russia will declare a blockade of Japan ports, and then will come a general war.

Hughes, Atkinson & Co., lumber, coal and wood merchants, Souris, Hartney and Brandon, have dissolved.

John Wallace, of Cartwright, is shipping a car of fat cattle to England. Mr. Wallace is an excellent judge of cattle.

Mr. H. L. Adolph, of Brandon, came in on Friday evening and returned home on Saturday morning. Souris Plaindealer.

The Rev. Mr. Barker and wife of Deloraine, got a good shaking up by a runaway team the other day, but suffered no serious injury.

Mr. Harry Hooper has returned from Glenboro, where he had charge of Leach & Royal's law office. He is going to remain with Sifton, Philip & Cameron.

Mr. Weatherburn, of Bradwardine, has been appointed a J. P. With both Brother Parr and himself on the bench, God help the bench, its legs will give out sure.

Mr. Haley, of Haley & Sutton, has gone to Winnipeg for the summer, and Mr. Sutton remains in the city for a time. They may not engage in any business till they see what the harvest will be.

Mr. Lindsay, son of Archibald Lindsay, Waterloo, Quebec, is now in the city visiting his big brother W. J. Mr. W. J. is endeavoring to induce the visitor to locate in some business in the city, but it is doubtful if he will be able to accomplish it.

P. E. and Mrs. Duret returned last Friday from a visit to Chicago. Paddy thinks Chicago is a great city, and if the cat jumps all right he may remove there by and bye, but all will depend on the jumping.

Mr. John Mittle seems to be a fortunate man in being able to milk the cow completely. He draws his occasional allowance as an M. P. and a yearly salary as a "dairy organizer" besides. He's well "up to snuff."

S. Mercer, a young Souris farmer, who originally came from Toronto, has returned to that city filled with grief. His wife proved faithless and deserted him and was, it is said, by neglect partially responsible for the death of their infant boy. — Free Press.

Notice to the Public. W. H. Mallett, one of the pioneer jewellers, has opened a shop on Rosser Ave. and is prepared to do all kinds of repairing. Fine watches a specialty. He is also carrying a choice line of Tobaccos and Cigars. A call is solicited. Singer Sewing Machine office in connection.

Miss McFadden, a graduate of the Toronto Conservatory of music, is in the city endeavoring to get up a class of vocal and instrumental instruction. The young lady is well up in both arts. Those desiring to join may leave word with Mr. Cliffe of the Mail.

A band of religious people had what they called a heaven in Illinois. The God thereof has been found guilty of adultery by the courts and now the gates of heaven have been opened, and all the angels have fled. That heaven is not old enough for practical purposes; it is not even as good as purgatory.

Oldfellowship was 76 years old on Friday last. In Winnipeg a procession had been organized on its way to a celebration of such and such a kind. In Brandon the brethren turned out in full force headed by the band on Sunday, in procession to the Baptist church, where an appropriate sermon was preached by the Rev. Mr. Lohr.

There is now in the C. P. R. yard here an instruction car in charge of an instructor. The car is nearly filled full of machinery showing all the details of air braking, and the instructor is giving all necessary information to train men so that no mistakes may occur the significance of this new system.

David Downey, a lad of 10, near Wawa, news, while driving a sled with an accident that caused death. The horse ran away, throwing him in front of the implement. In passing over his body, the machine broke his thigh, several ribs, and otherwise injured him. The poor little fellow expired while Dr. Husband was trying to set his fractures. Parents are criminally responsible for allowing children of that age to handle teams.

In the estimates at Ottawa, there is an additional $3,600 to complete the Brandon industrial school, $10,000 for Portage la Prairie school, $12,000 for Moosomin court house, addition, $5,000 for a court house at Prince Albert, and $6,000 for a wharf on Lake Winnipeg, of which $2,500 is a reserve. There is $9,000 for dredging in Manitoba, against $10,000 last year, and a reserve of $25,000 for a bridge across the Saskatchewan at Edmonton.

A few days ago a sheriff's officer who had a writ to serve on a settler amongst the hills about 20 miles north of Pilot Mound, says the settler, was driving after dark when the road passed amongst trees and scrub, some wicked persons, armed with double barreled shot-guns and provided with cartridges charged with peas, opened fire on the settler and his horse. The horse ran away and smashed the buggy. The officer, fearing that he would be murdered, retreated to a farm house about two miles distant, where he remained all night. The loud reports and the rattling of the peas on the carriage caused the officer to think that he was exposed to a discharge of box shot. An effort was made to discover the enemy, but without success.

Mr. McCracken, C. P. R. mail clerk, was a visitor in the city on Thursday.

A. Yeandle, Birtle, is in the city training Albert Victor and other horses for the 24th.

Goodhall, the man detective Foster arrested here some days ago for theft at Ekhnorn, was on Tuesday sentenced to nine months imprisonment by Judge Cumberland.

Yesterday three men reached the city with 47 geese they shot in the spruce bush. You can shoot geese at any season of the year, and there are always plenty of them in every community.

It is not true, as was reported in these columns and elsewhere, that Nation & White have sold out their hotel to Mr. Roberts. There was some talk about it, but nothing further came of it.

Although the Mail never sleeps we do not know that it has moved east yet. The New-Wester copies several items from our last issue headed "Siftonism" and credits them to Eastern exchanges.

It is said the Rev. Mr. Gaetz, of London, who is to trade places with the Rev. Mr. Daniels of the Methodist church here, in a few weeks. Mr. Daniels is exceedingly popular here, and Mr. Gaetz is equally well liked in London.

Don't forget the Grand Temperance meeting in the Prohibition hall, over Smeets' store, on Friday evening, May 2nd, address to be given by Rev. Mr. Masson. The meeting commences at 8 o'clock. All are cordially invited to attend, no collection.

The number of homestead entries in the district of Touchet from June 1891, to October, 1893, was 146. From the 1st of July, 1892, to the 1st of November, 1893, the number of entries from the United States at Calgary was 226, Edmonton 249, Watskanew 188, and Red Deer 48; a total of 811; representing 2,619 persons.

A very enjoyable time was spent last Tuesday evening at the social given by the Y.P.C.E. of the Baptist church. The first part of the evening was spent in the social line, when followed a short but interesting programme, after which all repaired to the vestry to partake of the good things that had been prepared for the occasion by the young ladies of the society.

Glen Campbell, the man who was chased out of the representation of Dauphin by "ways that are dark," is in the city having entered Wedgwood, and Veracity for the race on the 29th. He has great confidence in the Dauphin country, it having plenty of timber, immense areas of pasture and hayland, and good cropping soil. He says the demands of immigration so far create a good market for all crops raised there.

Dr. Fleming, of Brandon, writes to department of public works that on Monday, April 25th, he was called out to attend Mr. Gibb, one of the workmen in connection with the government's well boring machine which is in operation in the vicinity of the wheat city. The rope slipped from the pulley, falling on Mr. Gibb, breaking his arm at the elbow. He did not suffer any internal injury, but will not be able to work for some weeks. The department sent out a man to replace the injured workman to day. Mr. Gibb's place of residence is Virden.

IMPORTANT TO CASH BUYERS

In order to reduce our stock of Flour and Feed on hand we will sell for THIRTY DAYS, FOR CASH, at who's cost 25c.

PRIESTLY & MCKAY, Corner of 8th Street and Market Square.

GENTLEMEN

WHO have not yet availed themselves of the opportunity of getting a

FIRST-CLASS SUIT

— OF —

SEASONABLE COATS

at the price of

INFERIOR GOODS,

MAKE AND FIT,

are respectfully invited to inspect my goods at prices before ordering elsewhere either in this city or abroad.

As my reputation for

STY E OF MAKE,

FIRST-CLASS FIT

— AND —

QUALITY OF MATERIAL

has long since been established; no further recommendations are necessary.

J. S. Lamont

WHY?

Do you wear a ready-made, poor fitting suit. Is it because it requires only a small outlay at the time?

If this is the reason we can assure you there is no need for wearing them, now that we are selling our

Spring Goods

at prices that surprise the closest buyer.

CALL and inspect our goods or write for samples.

GOODEN & RAE.

Opposite Syndicate Block.

ROBT. GUCHER

& JOHNSON,

Brandon Laundry

AND

Dyeworks,

South end of 9th Street.

Goods called for and delivered promptly.

P. O. BOX 345.

All Work Guaranteed.

S. BIGG'S TRANSFER

S. WOOD & COAL

Next Door to C. P. R. Ticket Office.

TELEPHONE NO. 97.

R. D. EVANS,

AUCTIONEER.

Household, Real Estate and Farmers' SALES A SPECIALTY. Agent G. N. W. Telegraph Co. Syndicate Block

BRANDON, MAN.

THE EARLE ICE CO. Commenced this week to deliver ice for WASHING PURPOSES, and are now ready to Deliver at all houses.

Price 25 and 50 cents a Load.

TELEPHONE 165.

Parrish & Lindsay's

NEW SUPPLY STORE

OPPOSITE C. P. R. STATION.

.....Is now open with a.....

.....Full Stock of Groceries.....

.....Flour, Shorts, Bran.....

.....Oatmeal, Potatoes.....

.....Paled Hay, &c.....

.....which for quality and.....

.....price defy competi.....

.....ation Call and inspect.....

.....the Stock and get.....

.....prices, it will pay.....

.....you.

T. M. PERCIVAL, Manager.

.....N.B. Highest price.....

.....paid for Butter, Eggs.....

.....Potatoes, Hogs and.....

.....all Farm Produce.

THE ART OF CURING SCOTCH RHEUMATISM NEURALGIA PAINS IN BACK OR SIDE OR ANY MUSCULAR PARTS LIES IN USING

Brandon : Roller : Mills.

ALEXANDER, KELLY & CO., Proprietors.

With a capacity of over 300 barrels per day are now in complete running order, and fully equipped for the best manufacture of all grades of Flour, Oatmeal, Granulated Foods and Pearled Barley. The brands of Flour now manufactured, and what will be delivered to all parts of the city from the mill or through any of the city dealers, are:

"SNOW DRIFT" or Fancy Patent one of the best pastry flours in the market, and is the highest grade manufactured.

"LILY" or Family Patent. This is a flour that we can recommend for general family use, and will be found to give the highest satisfaction.

"BAKERS PRIDE" The highest grade of Strong Bakers flour, and its qualities are superior to anything of the kind ever before placed on the market.

"X X X X" This is a grade somewhat lower than the above, and in the manufacture of which is used only the best quality of wheat. It is used for the manufacture of Brown Bread and is an excellent feed for all purposes.

Our facilities for manufacturing the following are of a superior order and they are always in stock at low prices.

Roller Oats, Granulated Oatmeal, Standard Oatmeal, Rolled Wheat, Pearled Wheat, Pearled Barley and Pot Barley.

All Goods Sold at the Lowest Market Prices for Best Brands.

CHOPPING AND GRISTING

are done every day. Chopping 8 cents per hundred, and Gristing 15 cents per bushel, for which we give the best grade of "Lily Patent." Satisfaction assured all patrons.

ALEXANDER, KELLY & COMPANY.

Built For Business,

BUCK'S

STOVES AND RANGES.

They are Perfection. Why buy a Cook Stove of light weight and inferior quality when you may buy a better Hard Times Prices. Baking and Cooking qualifications unequalled

CHEAPER.

If you must have the Lighter Cooking Stove we can supply you at prices far below the regular selling price. This Line must be closed out to make room for Stoves on the way. Don't fail to get a Bargain.

Yes, It's

Getting Cold.

Don't be caught napping! Buy a Radiant Home Heater and be warm; it will lift the cold air from off the floor and cause a thorough radiation of heat, the most economical stove made. You can get more heat with less fuel than any other made. See our other Lines of Stoves.

JAS. ROBERTSON & CO., Hardware Merchants.

Corner of Rosser and 7th St., BRANDON

WOOL! WOOL!

A. CARRUTHERS,

DEALER IN

HIDES, SKINS, WOOL, TALLOW, SENECA ROOT AND FURS.

Desires to inform the farmers and dealers of the Province of Manitoba and the N.W.T. that he has opened a warehouse in the City of Brandon, at the Corner of ROSSE AVENUE and FOURTH STREET, for the purchasing of the above named articles, where the highest cash market prices will be paid. I especially invite all Wool Growers to give me a call before disposing of their Wool elsewhere.

W. W. CARRUTHERS, Manager Brandon Branch.

Head Office, 178 and 180 King Street, Winnipeg.

Telephone 144.

H. McKay,

Livery, Feed and Sale Stable.

Just South of and close to New C.P.R. Depot.

10th Street, Between Ros. & Pac. Brandon.

Good Horses and Rigs at lowest notice. Drivers furnished when required.

PATENTS

CAVEATS, TRADE MARKS, COPYRIGHTS.

CAN I OBTAIN A PATENT FOR MY INVENTION? I can if it is new, useful, and original. I have had many years' experience in the patent business. I have secured many patents for my clients, and I can do so for you. I will give you a full and complete explanation of the patent law, and I will advise you as to the best way to protect your invention. I will also give you a full and complete explanation of the patent law, and I will advise you as to the best way to protect your invention. I will also give you a full and complete explanation of the patent law, and I will advise you as to the best way to protect your invention.

With a simple sketch or a verbal description, I will prepare a full and complete patent application for you. I will also give you a full and complete explanation of the patent law, and I will advise you as to the best way to protect your invention. I will also give you a full and complete explanation of the patent law, and I will advise you as to the best way to protect your invention. I will also give you a full and complete explanation of the patent law, and I will advise you as to the best way to protect your invention.

Just South of and close to New C.P.R. Depot.

10th Street, Between Ros. & Pac. Brandon.

Good Horses and Rigs at lowest notice. Drivers furnished when required.

PATENTS

CAVEATS, TRADE MARKS, COPYRIGHTS.

CAN I OBTAIN A PATENT FOR MY INVENTION? I can if it is new, useful, and original. I have had many years' experience in the patent business. I have secured many patents for my clients, and I can do so for you. I will give you a full and complete explanation of the patent law, and I will advise you as to the best way to protect your invention. I will also give you a full and complete explanation of the patent law, and I will advise you as to the best way to protect your invention. I will also give you a full and complete explanation of the patent law, and I will advise you as to the best way to protect your invention.

With a simple sketch or a verbal description, I will prepare a full and complete patent application for you. I will also give you a full and complete explanation of the patent law, and I will advise you as to the best way to protect your invention. I will also give you a full and complete explanation of the patent law, and I will advise you as to the best way to protect your invention. I will also give you a full and complete explanation of the patent law, and I will advise you as to the best way to protect your invention.

Just South of and close to New C.P.R. Depot.

10th Street, Between Ros. & Pac. Brandon.

Good Horses and Rigs at lowest notice. Drivers furnished when required.

PATENTS